I

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an image of gold, whose height was three-score cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits : he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

Then the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up ; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Then the herald cried aloud,

“ To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up : and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.”

Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

II

WHEREFORE at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and brought accusation against the Jews :

“ O king, live for ever. Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image : and whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. There are certain Jews whom thou hast appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego ; these men, O king, have not regarded thee : they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.”

Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

“ Is it of purpose, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that ye serve not my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up ? Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well : but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace ; and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands ? ”

“ O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer thee in this matter. If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace ; and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.”

III

THEN was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego : therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was wont to be heated. And he commanded certain mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. And these three men fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. And the king's servants, that put them in, ceased not to make the furnace hot with naphtha, pitch, tow, and small wood ; so that the flame streamed forth above the furnace. And it spread, and burned those Chaldeans whom it found about the furnace.

But the angel of the Lord came down and smote the flame of the fire out of the furnace ; and made the midst of the furnace as it had been a moist whistling wind, so that the fire touched them not at all, neither hurt nor troubled them.

Then the three, as out of one mouth, praised, and glorified, and blessed God in the furnace :

“ Blessed art thou, O Lord, thou God of our fathers : and to be praised and exalted above all for ever.
And blessed is thy glorious and holy name : and to be praised and exalted above all for ever.
Blessed art thou in the temple of thine holy glory : and to be praised and glorified above all for ever.
Blessed art thou that beholdest the depths, and sittest upon the cherubim : and to be praised and exalted above all for ever.
Blessed art thou on the throne of thy kingdom : and to be praised and extolled above all for ever.
Blessed art thou in the firmament of heaven : and to be praised and glorified for ever.”

Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste :

“ Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire ? ”

“ True, O king.”

“ Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt ; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the gods.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, ye servants of the Most High God, come forth, and come hither.”

Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, came forth out of the midst of the fire. And the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power upon their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their hosen changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them.

Nebuchadnezzar spake and said :

“ Blessed be the God who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill ; because there is no other god that is able to deliver after this sort.”

O ALL YE WORKS of the Lord, bless ye the Lord, praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 O ye heavens, O ye angels of the Lord,
 O all ye waters that be above the heaven, O all ye powers of the Lord,
 O ye sun and moon, O ye stars of heaven,
 O every shower and dew, O all ye winds,
 O ye fire and heat, O ye nights and days,
 O ye light and darkness, O ye cold and heat,
 O ye frost and snow, O ye lightnings and clouds,
 O let the earth bless the Lord ; let it praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 O ye mountains and hills, bless ye the Lord, praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 O all ye things that grow on the earth, O sea and rivers,
 O ye fountains, O ye whales, and all that move in the waters,
 O all ye fowls of the air, O all ye beasts and cattle,
 O ye children of men,
 O let Israel bless the Lord, praise and exalt him for ever.
 O ye priests of the Lord, bless ye the Lord ; praise and exalt him above all for ever.
 O ye servants of the Lord,
 O ye spirits and souls of the righteous,
 O ye that are holy and humble of heart,
 O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, bless ye the Lord ; praise and exalt him above all for ever :

For he hath rescued us from hell, and saved us from the hand of death : he hath delivered us out of the midst of the furnace and burning flame, even out of the midst of the fire hath he delivered us.

(From the Book of Daniel, chapter iii, and the Song of the Three Holy Children, revised versions.)
