ANDANTE.

The first system of the Minuet consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower in bass clef. The key signature has one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The music begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The melody in the right hand is characterized by eighth-note patterns and chords, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment.

The second system continues the Minuet. It features a repeat sign at the beginning of the right-hand staff. The musical texture remains consistent with the first system, maintaining the piano (p) dynamic.

The third system of the Minuet includes trills (tr.) in the right-hand staff. The dynamic increases to forte (f) towards the end of the system. The left hand continues with its accompaniment.

The fourth system concludes the Minuet. It features a rall. (rallentando) marking in the right-hand staff, indicating a gradual deceleration of the music. The piece ends with a double bar line.

No. 5. CHORUS OF GIRLS—"With Heart and with Voice."

PIANO.

The first system of the Chorus of Girls is marked Allegretto. and dolce. It consists of two staves. The key signature has two flats (Bb and Eb) and the time signature is 2/4. The music is in piano (p) dynamics. The right hand features a melody with eighth-note patterns, while the left hand has a rhythmic accompaniment.

CHORUS.

The first system of the musical score features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written in a treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a common time signature. The lyrics are "Eh ! . . . Eh ! but I du loike you !" and "Eh ! but I du loike you !". The piano accompaniment is written in a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with the same key signature and time signature. The right hand plays a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. A fermata is placed over the final note of the vocal line, and the letter "R" is written above it.

The second system of the musical score is a piano accompaniment. It consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, with a key signature of three sharps and a common time signature. The right hand plays a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. A fermata is placed over the final note of the vocal line, and the letter "R" is written above it.

The third system of the musical score is a piano accompaniment. It consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, with a key signature of three sharps and a common time signature. The right hand plays a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. A fermata is placed over the final note of the vocal line, and the letter "R" is written above it.

The fourth system of the musical score is a piano accompaniment. It consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, with a key signature of three sharps and a common time signature. The right hand plays a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. A fermata is placed over the final note of the vocal line, and the letter "R" is written above it.

The fifth system of the musical score is a piano accompaniment. It consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, with a key signature of three sharps and a common time signature. The right hand plays a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. A fermata is placed over the final note of the vocal line, and the letter "R" is written above it.

The piano accompaniment consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The music is in a 2/4 time signature and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The accompaniment features a steady, rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, providing a light and cheerful accompaniment for the vocal parts. The melody is simple and repetitive, following the lyrics of the song.
